Leading spot interests were buyers of early new crop deliveries on the decline again this morning, and the market ralled later in the forencon, with active months selling a point or two net higher. There was some New Orleans buying on this advance, but general business continued quiet, and prices eased off 2 or 3 points shortly after midday under realizing.

The market remained quiet during interboro-Met pid. 69% the middle of the afternoon, with prices a point or two under last night's Int. Harv. Corp. com. 70 closing figures. ot cotton quiet; middling uplands, sales, 200 bales.

NEW ORLEANS, April 5.—Cotton opened quiet but steady, today. Prices advanced 2 to 5 points in the first half hour of business on a private bureau report forecasting a decrease in acreage of 20 per cent and a decrease in the use of fertilizer; of 40 per cent. Futures opened steady; May, 9.43; July, 9.70 (asked); October, 10.02; December, 10.19 (asked); January, 10.29.

Although the market became dull it held its steadiness and in the trading up to noon went 9 to 10 points over last week's close, on what was said to be fresh long buying.

Funeral of Spencer C. Jones Held AIDED BY HEBREWS HERE

More Than 200 Washingtonians Contribute to Work of Society at Edgewater, Col.

More than 200 Washington Hebrews spending the winter, took place of the Jewish Consumptive Relief Sofrom his late residence here at 10 ciety, which operates a sanatorium for consumptives at Edgewater, Col., according to the annual report of the organization, just received here by Rev. cal life of the state and county. The Dr. Abram Simon, who is a director of the society.

The sanatorium was opened in 1904, and at the present time the cost of buildings and equipment has reached $109,428, while the capacity of the institution is 140 patients. Only indigent consumptives are admitted to the institution, and emergency cases are admitted without the least delay and no distinction is made between races and religions. Since 1904 there have been 1,333 regular cases admitted to the sanatorium while there have been 591 emergence cases, a total of 1,924 cases.

Dues of Various Members

The active members of the society pay $5 yearly, while associate mem-bers pay $3. The fee for patron memper annum, and life members, $100. A bed in the institution can be endowed by a payment of $1,000.

by a payment of $1,000.

One point which Secretary C. D. Spivak makes in his report is that a lesson taught by the society "is that since charitable agencies do not remove the cause of evil, it is therefore evident that the underlying motive of all charity is rachmones (pity), hence charitable endeavor must be commensurate with the extent of pity it evokes. The greater the misery, the greater the pity, and the greater the effort to lessen the misery.

But there is the second fellow with his feverish brow, gasping, racked by pain. Our sympathy is greater toward him. If there is only one bed vacant and the choice must be made between the two, the Jewish Consumptives' Relief Society would not hesitate to give the bed to the second man. But when we must take our choice between three man in preference to the two others.

In short, the Jewish Consumptives' Relief Society follows the principle that relief must be given first to those who suffer most.

The National Jewish Hospital for consumptives takes in advanced cases, so does the Agnes Memorial and the Swedish National Hospital. The Catholics are now running a series of events for the benefit of a hospital for ad-vanced cases and our colored friends have started a movement for building a sanatorium for their won sick."

Hymn Writers and Age. From the London Chronicle. The practice of hymn-writing ap-to be conducive to longevity. Charlotte Elliott, who wrote "Just As and reserved decision on the application and the time of the made by Lewis Case Ledyard and I Am," was eighty-two at the time of her death; Bishop Bickersteth, who wrote, "Pcace, Perfect Peace," was eighty-one, as also was Charles Wesley. Bishop Walsham How—author of some of the most popular of the "Hymns, Ancient and Modern"—John Keble and Bishop Kerr, the writer of the famous "Evening" hymn, were all seventy-four. And, in compiling such a list as this, one ought not to forget the name of W.E. Gladstone, who narrowly escaped becoming a nonagenrian. One of Mr. Gladstone's hymns—"O Lead My Blindness by the Hand"—is to be found in the "English Hymnal."
